There Is Nothing You Can Do

From "Proclamations of the Soul" by Rich Work

There is nothing you can do to be who you are. There is no book you can read, no meditation you can do, no workshop you can attend to be who you are. You already are who you are: You are a divine Creation expressed in physical form. You need only reach out and remove the veils of illusion that you have placed around you to rediscover once again the beautiful, divine being within.

To be divine is not a process of trying to be something that you perceive you should be or that others expect you to be. To be divine is a process of allowing. You already are who you are.

This process allows you to transfer from one thought to another, to transcend fear, judgment and limitations and enter a world filled with unconditional love. As you shed judgements, fears and rigid thought patterns of the institutions of this world, just as you might take off your coat, you step into a universal thought form that allows you the freedom, knowledge and wisdom of all that is and all that will be. Your whole being resonates in the vibrations of joy, peace and harmony and radiates into the immediate world around you.

You then begin to understand how manifestation works, how your thought goes forth into the Universe and returns to your reality in a third-dimensional form that stands before you and says, "Look at me. This is how you have created me. This is what you have desired according to your thoughts."

As your thoughts become more clear, you begin to understand that this manifestation can bring joy instead of drama. As you move from a rigid thought pattern to the flexibility of universal thought, you simultaneously bring your spiritual essence into physical form. You bring your spirituality into full physical manifestation in your physical body and in your physical world; your career, your flow of money, your relationships, your shelter, your food. There is no separation between the spiritual and the physical other than that which you place on it through your belief systems. They are in fact one and the same. Your body is the creative expression of the spiritual manifested in physical form.

The Rainbow of Life is an energetic rainbow of frequencies which move through the body much like musical resonance moves through an instrument. One might think of it like the vibration which moves through the strings of a piano. The keys on the piano always remain the same, however, if a string becomes dysfunctional and loses its pitch, it must be “tuned” before you can again hear a beautiful resonate harmonic note.

As the Rainbow of Life moves through the body, certain frequencies can become distorted because of a dysfunction within the body. One way to assist the body in correcting the dysfunction is to restore specific “Rhythms” of Life to assist in “tuning” the body to its harmonic potential. This will awaken the natural inborn intelligence of the body to begin to restore itself to its natural healthy state of being.

INSPIRE - INCREASE - AMPLIFY - the Harmonic “Rhythms” of life within you to:

Excerpts from “The Veils of Illusion” by Rich Work

A new consciousness is evolving proclaiming, “I want to be well, whole and perfect of mind, body and soul. I desire life and regeneration.”

The following proclamation and visualization will assist you in achieving this goal.

The Matrix of Life

I am one with Creation on all levels of consciousness.

I reach into Creation, into the Universe of Earth and the planet Earth to those energies creating opposing thought forms—to sustain life or to destroy life— causing separation in the matrix of life.

*I create an energy form moving in its perfect sequential order to merge these two opposing energy forms into one energy, one of pure life and rejuvenation.
I command this take place in harmony with all life forms upon the planet Earth.
And so it is.*

The Visualization

In your mind’s eye, see a pair of siamese-twins connected together at the body. One is named life and regeneration. The other is named death and degeneration. If the two become separated, they both shall die. The desired outcome is to merge the two together into one body of life and regeneration. Visualize death and degeneration deflating like a balloon and this energy merging into life and regeneration. As this energy moves into life and regeneration it is automatically transmuted into life and regeneration (the strongest frequency wins.) Visualize death and degeneration continue to deflate until there is only one body with no appendage extending from it and this body is life and regeneration.

Repeat this visualization daily until you are comfortable knowing there is only one thought form, life and regeneration, and your creative energies are focused in the manner you desire.

NOTE: It is also supportive to put a few drops of Ebony under your tongue before doing the visualization.

“My journey led me to marvel at the inner power that lies within all of us. Through Rich and Ann Marie Work’s books and teachings, I gained knowledge I have been able to use and share with others. Peace, hope, love, laughter and the understanding that we are all one, are central to my story. I learned the importance of connecting with our inner peace/knowing to keep grounded and centered. Instead of focusing on fear and hatred...what if the world’s focus would be on compassion, love and peace? I continue to use and share Rich’s Proclamations from his books. I invite you to challenge the forces that counter our self-knowing and self-caring. Much of my story is about clearing the path for the thoughts and actions that have enabled me to experience self-healing and happiness. As Rich Work always said, “All truth is truth but not all truth is your truth.” Find your truth even if it means going against the grain.” Jane Kramer, Author

The items that Harmonics International sells do not treat or cure disease, they work with the energies of the body.

There is no reality other than your perception. The world you perceive is the world you choose to see, and there is no interpretation free from perception. You have lived in a world of separation, where power has been used to control humanity. Distortions, illusions, thought forms and other energies have been designed to create holographic veils obstructing your ability to see your truth. It is time to remove the veils of illusion. Rich Work

There is no power greater than the Divine Love within you.

From “God, this is a good book!” by Rich Work

Have You Noticed?

*Have you noticed that the seasons were more beautiful this year,
that the colors are brighter, the sky more blue?*

Have you noticed the changes within yourself?

Have you noticed how you grow with each passing day, with each passing life experience?

No, not grown older but grown wiser, having more depth to your Being, more radiant, more beautiful in spirit.

*Have you noticed the perfection in all things, in nature, in your friends and acquaintances, in yourself, in the grand Earth stage that you stand on,
in Mother Earth herself, who has supported and nurtured us?*

Have you noticed that time seems to be moving faster, never enough time to accomplish all that you had planned, that by the time you have thought of it there is no time to express it?

There seems to be no past, no future, only Now, in the moment.

Time is becoming no-time. We are living in the moment.

Science knows that time exists only in the minds of man, who created the concept of time to satisfy their mortal minds.

But the Universe, the Soul already know that there is no time, that we live only in the moment.

Have you noticed that so many seem to wait for an opportunity to find “time” to acknowledge Love for those who have blessed their journey, those who have brought Warmth to their hearts and Joy to their lives?

It has occurred to me that there is no time better than now -- in the moment -- to thank all those who have blessed my life.

“Rich and Ann Marie, I honor you as truly two of my greatest teachers. At the time I met you, you took me to a height that no other teacher could reach for me. You will always be in my heart and mind. When I am down, I grab your books and I am comforted. Rich walked with the highest Master...I know. I felt...I saw...I heard... You were his reflection. Love you dear friend, forever. Ann Marie, I believe that science acknowledged prayer and the spiritual life for some time. It is just that the people were brain washed for so long and now we must hold them high with knowing the Truth and loving them into wholeness to relearn what is Real and what is Truth. With people like you and Rich the world has become more aware and awake to what is Truth... I miss the presence of Rich’s life still walking this earth. I have always sent your comfort and love and will always....” Linda Defeo

Restore Stability with the Emerald Vital Life Discs

Become Present and Grounded: Have you ever had a great thought, then you walked into the next room and it disappeared? This may be caused by excess static in the body's electrical system that creates a short-circuit in the neuro-transmission. In order to remain focused and grounded, a flow of energy between the body's meridian system and the electro-magnetic grid system of the Earth must be maintained. The Emerald Vital Life Discs assist to clear the excess static, repair short-circuits and restore your connection to the Earth, allowing you to be more decisive, determined and directed toward your desires.

Become Centered and Aligned: Ever feel defeated when things aren't going as planned? When static interrupts the flow of life-force energy, you may become out of alignment with the Divine Nature of your being. By releasing the static, you are able to alleviate guilt, frustration, self-judgment that comes from inability and failure, and once again become motivated to continue and be responsible for your goals.

Become Balanced and Harmonized: All systems and cells are designed to be balanced and harmonized with one another. Just think of your body as a country with 70,000 to 100,000 citizens (cells) and all of the infrastructure to keep it functioning and vital. There is a gigantic metropolis of communication required for cell reproduction, transportation of nutrients, oxygen and waste products, metabolism, rejuvenation and rebuilding plus, libraries of knowledge and wisdom, etc. It is imperative to release static - repair circuits - re-establish balance and harmony within all communication and function.

Suggested Use: START SLOWLY! There may be a lot of static to be released and circuits to be repaired. Hold one in each hand for 30 - 60 minutes each day. Or, for a few minutes during the day when you feel fragmented or frustrated. You can place them in a relaxing bath with you.

Sit down, breathe gently and focus on something that brings you peace and joy. Let your body relax. The Discs will assist in dispersing the static in your systems, allowing you to become present, centered and balanced. After a few days or weeks, feel free to place them in your pockets or bra for several hours. Once your body has begun to stabilize and restore its natural ability to automatically release excess static build-up, you can wear them all day long.
